

A109

Barbara Mitchell Pollack Fond

Originals and copies, 1 cm of textual records, 1982, 1987-88

Scope and Content: Contains one file folder and one spiral bound book. The content is based upon anti-nuclear activities.

Series A 109/1/1-2: Files, 2 cm, 1982, 1987-88 (originals and copies)

1) Spiral bound book, "Nuclear Weapons Free Zone," 1987-88

19 posters, newspaper clippings, correspondence

2) File Folder, "Operation Dismantle," 1982

Donation lists/receipts

Biographical Sketch: Barbara Mitchell Pollack was a political activist in the Thunder Bay area who was particularly interested in the anti-nuclear movement. She was a teacher of drama and arts. She currently resides in Victoria, British Columbia.

Additional Information:

Donated by Jean Morrison.

Associated material: see 2009.186.1