

A 124

Wally Duffield/Lakehead Search and Rescue Fonds

Original, films, documents and scrapbooks. 12cm. 1963-1990, 1998, 2001, 2004

Scope and Content:

A number of documents concerning the operations and history of the Lakehead Search and Rescue Unit from 1963 to the early 2000s. Most information comes from newspaper articles. Compiled by Wally Duffield.

A 124/1/1: Film Reel, 2cm, 1980

A recording of Coming Back Alive, a 23 minute 1980 NFB production. Produced on request of the Canadian Coast Guard, it covers maritime and naval safety. Centered around Don Johnson.

A 124/2/1: Reference booklet, 1cm, 1963

A booklet designed for quick reference on a variety of potential issues rescuers could encounter.

A 124/3/1-7: Scrapbooks, 9cm, 1963-1990, 1998, 2004

A collection of seven scrapbooks covering the history of the Lakehead Search and Rescue organization. Booklets are arranged mostly chronologically with most information coming from newspaper articles, but other sources are present. Booklet #2 is an exception, dominated by photographs.

Biographical Sketch: Wally Duffield was a member of the Lakehead Search and Rescue Unit for 40 years. Duffield was the second president of the Lakehead Search and Rescue Unit.