

A 94

Central School Port Arthur collection

Originals, 9 cm of textual records and 2 CD-ROMs, 2001.

Scope and content:

The Central School Port Arthur collection contains two binders and two CD-ROMS of written and illustrative material relating to the history of Central School, collected on the occasion of the “preservation celebration” reunion held in October 2001. The first binder lists the principals and teachers from 1873-1964, compiled by Art Gunnell. Binder two contains prints of photos collected by Joan Baril on the occasion of the reunion. The two CD-ROMs contain the original digital images.

Series A 94/1/1-2: Binders and CD-ROMs - 9 cm and 2 CD-ROMs - 2001 (originals).

- 1) Binders, lists of principals and teachers from 1873-1964 and prints of photos
- 2) CD-ROMs, original digital images of photos

Biographical sketch:

Part of this collection was collected by Joan Baril, the reunion organizer for Port Arthur’s former Central School. The reunion took place from October 6 to October 7, 2001. The school was originally built in 1873 and closed in 1964. It now serves as a theatre.

Additional information: None