

E 45

Amateur Cinema Society of Thunder Bay fonds

Copy, 25 minutes of video tape , 1930.

Scope and Content:

Series E 45/1/1 - Video Tape - 25 minutes - 1930 (copy).

One copy of a film entitled "The Fatal Flower" produced in 1930. Actor were all local amateurs. Film was shot in Port Arthur. It is the story of a romance between the police chief's daughter and a criminal. Script was written by Dorothea Mitchell, and directed by Harold Harcourt. Case included: Margaret Arthur, Harold Gross, Frank Toole, Wally McComber, Herb Elliott, Duncan Roberts, Chris Dunbar, Matt Kavanaugh, and Mrs. J. Toole.

Administrative Sketch: The Amateur Cinema Society of Thunder Bay was formed in 1929 by a group of local men and women interested in film production One completed film, "A Race for Ties", and two partially completed films, "The Fatal Flower" and "Sleep Inn Beauty" were produced using local actors.

Additional Information:

Originals - National Archives of Canada.