

Andrew Dick Papers

1888-1905

6 cm of textual records

Biographical Sketch

Andrew Dick (1831-1917) probably lived on Caribou Island, near Rossport. He had at least ten children between 1863 and 1884 when his wife died. He possibly had six to eight more children by another marriage. Dick was a fisherman by trade and cared for the lighthouse at Point Porphyry.

Scope and Content

Series A 39/1/1-2 - Day Book

Day books or diaries of daily activities of Mr. Dick recounting events in his life such as fish catches, plantings, ships passings, temperatures and weather conditions. Two volumes.

1) 1888 to 1 Jan. 1895

2) 1899-1905