

Crawley Films Limited fonds

ca. 1950

30 min. of film

Administrative history

Crawley Films Limited was established in Toronto.

Scope and Content

Series B 31/1/1. - Motion picture film.

A motion picture film entitled "Gateway to Tomorrow", showing primarily the shipping activities and industries at the Thunder Bay Ports of Fort William and Port Arthur in ca.1950. It is a sound film in colour. Designed as a promotional film for the port.

Notes

Custodial history: This film was discarded from the collection of the Northwestern Regional Library System in the 1970s and acquired from them directly.