

George Powell fonds

1972-1973

.5 cm of textual records (includes photocopies)

Biographical Sketch

George Powell is a poet who wrote these poems while living at 707 McLoughlin St., Thunder Bay in 1972-1973.

Scope and Content

Series A 59/1/1 - Poetry - 6 items

Six poems written by George Powell. Includes "Philosophy Forward" (possibly dedicated to or written by Amy Lenton who also lived at the same address), "The Round Earth", "Christmas 1972", "Canada- U.S. Defence Production Sharing Agreement", "We Cry on Silver Horn to Warn" (signed by G.Powell, April 1973), and "In their Sad Hour" (signed).