Administrative History

Lac la Pluie Depot of the North West Company was located two miles east of the present site of Fort Frances. It supplied the brigades that travelled to the remote Athabaska region.

Scope and Content

Series B 6/1/1. - Bills of Lading. - 30 July 1806-31 July 1809

One bound volume containing the bills of lading for the canoes which were loaded at the Lac la Pluie Depot. The volume originally contained 107 pages and 99 entries, two of which have been removed, and the last eight pages are blank. Each page is divided into four columns listing the North West Company mark, contents and quantity of pieces loaded into the canoe, the provisions, as well as the names and positions of the crew of the canoe.
