

North Western Ontario Conservation Federation fonds

1939-1952, 1979

3 cm of textual records

Administrative history

The North Western Ontario Conservation Federation was organized in 1947 in order to unite and affiliate all conservation minded associations and clubs of North Western Ontario. Its purpose was to conserve fish and wildlife in their environments. All active members voted and Keith Denis was the President.

Scope and Content

Series E 23/1/1-6. - Miscellaneous

- 1) Constitutions from the North Western Ontario Conservation Federation (1942), The Thunder Bay District Fish and Game Association, and the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters.
- 2) Correspondence from 1939-1952.
- 3) Financial statements from 1948-1950.
- 4) Reports on the Nipigon River Crisis, the Quetico Foundation (1966), The Thunder Bay District Fish And Game Association, and the Junior Chamber of Congress report on the Sibley Peninsula.
- 5) Minutes from meetings of the North Western Ontario Conservation Federation (1949-1950), Anglers and Hunters Incorporation (1950-1952), the Special Joint Session of Fish and Game (1947-1951), and the Marathon Rod and Gun Club (1950).
- 6) News bulletins from 1947-1951, as well as the District Fish and Game from 1979.

Notes