

V.B. Wadsworth fonds

1922-1924

62 fol. of photocopied textual records

Biographical Sketch

William C. Noxon was Agent General for Ontario in London England. V.B. Wadsworth seems to have been an intermediary between Noxon and real estate and insurance agent Alf Cooper in Fort William.

Scope and Content

These papers consist of personal letters recounting family matters and official letters regarding immigration from the British Isles to Ontario, specifically among William C. Noxon, Alf Cooper and V.B. Wadsworth regarding a proposal to settle Hebridean farmers in Northwestern Ontario in 1924.

Series A 2/1/1-25 - Correspondence

Arranged chronologically, 25 letters in all.

Additional Information

Copy Repository - Originals are in Archives of Ontario, MV 3085 B- III-5 Wadsworth Papers.