

Papers & Records

(1973-present)

Since 1908 this annual journal has been published, specializing in the life, history, and geography of Northwestern Ontario. Still available are issues of the modern series beginning in 1973 and continuing to the present. The series covers a wide range of fields including the fur trade; regional, social, and urban history; shipping; business and labour; the arts; and biographies on historical figures from the region. An index is available for volumes I-XXI. A sample of what you can find in the Papers & Records:

List of articles 1973-2009:

Subject Analysis 1973-2009

by F. Brent Scollie

Major articles by broad category

Articles are listed under more than one category. The analysis excludes Presidents' and Director/Curators' reports, and anonymous memorial resolutions.

Photocopies of articles may be purchased from the Thunder Bay Museum at a cost of 25 cents per page, or you can purchase an entire volume for $10.

Agriculture and rural life

- "The Wilson letters [Port Arthur 1889-93]", II (1974), 22-28
- "Hymers - the first sixty years", III (1975), 19-21
- "The Garbutt letters [O'Connor Township]", IV (1976), 12-23
- "The William Wilson diaries 1895-1927 : the influence of climate on his daily activities", XV (1987), 40-50
- "Agricultural settlement in Northwestern Ontario to 1930", XVII (1989), 44-63
- "Homesteading at Pass Lake [Danes]: a memoir by Karl (Charles) Hansen; introduced and edited by Beth Boegh", XXX (2002), 3-38

Archaeology see also Native peoples

- "Underwater search for lost fur trade goods in Northern Ontario", III (1975), 27-34
- "Contributions and personalities of the archaeologists who breached the continental boreal forest of Canada", XXV (1997), 24-44.

Architectural history

- "Meaning in old buildings", V (1977), 1-11
- "Thunder Bay, once a city of train stations", XXVI (1998), 46-63
- "This 'Magnificent Pile': architectural embellishments of older school buildings in Thunder Bay", XXI (1993), 35-60
- "Stone construction at old Fort William", XXVII (1999), 17-32

- “Backward glance [Port Arthur Publicity & Tourist Pagoda 1909], XXXVII (2009), 80

Arts and entertainment (art, cinema, music, theatre)

- "The golden years of theatre in Thunder Bay", VII (1979), 32-39
- "The Fort William Male Choir : eight decades of song", XXIV (1996), 2-11
- "Wartime in song and story : Gertrude Cornish Knight, motherhood and patriotism, 1910-1921", XXIV (1996), 12-33
- "Our place to applaud : a brief history of the Thunder Bay Community Auditorium", XXIV (1996), 34-44
- "Ruth Tye McKenzie : the figure in the landscape", XXIV (1996), 45-51
- "The Thunder Bay Art gallery 1972-1996", XXIV (1996), 52-69
- "Maurice Jackson's All Girls' Band", XXX (2002), 39-46
- "In public's demand : entertainment in Fort William's first town hall 1892-1903", XXXI (2003), 3-20
- "Early filmmaking at the Lakehead 1911-1931", XXXIII (2005), 42-64
- "Theatre and music on Ontario's frontier 1876-1907: town hall entertainment in Victorian Thunder Bay", XXXVI (2008), 24-52

Bibliography

- "Bibliography of M.J.L. Black", XI (1983), 30-31
- "The publications of Elizabeth Arthur", XIII (1985), 46-50
- "The publications of K.C.A. Dawson", XXV (1997), 18-23

Biography, Memoirs, Oral interviews

- “Alma Henry of Fort Frances”, XXIX (2001), 57
- "Oliver Daunais--the Silver King", II (1974), 12-21
- "Colonel Elizabeth Smellie", III (1975), 16-18
- "Angélique and her children [Angélique and Roderick McKenzie]", VI (1978), 30-40
- "Old Fort William's fiddler Joe Harrison and his ancestral links with the Fort William of 1816", VII (1979), 1-5
- "Reminiscences of York Factory [Adelaide Alston Taylor]", IX (1981), 1-6
- "A. L. Russell and the Port Arthur Rifle Association", X (1982), 23-27
- "The founding father [Peter McKellar]", XI (1983), 10-22
- "Mary J. L. Black of the Fort William Public Library", XI (1983), 23-30
- "The life and work of Father Richard Baxter, missionary", XI (1983), 49-52
- "Incidents in the life of James Conmee 1848-1913", XI (1983), 53-61
- "Frederick Urry, architect : the wage-earner's advocate", XIV (1986), 8-22
- "C.J. Machin, British Israelism and Imperial Federation : 'a lowly colonial clergyman in a purely missionary diocese'", XV (1987), 14-22
- "James Murphy 1863-1928", XV (1987), 35-39
- "Playing the party game : R.J. Manion and the 1935 election in Fort William", XVI (1988), 3-15
- "Thomas Marks, merchant prince of Thunder Bay", XVI (1988), 22-31
- "Harry Bryan - a man of fanatical conviction", XVII (1989), 37-43
- "Samuel Crawford Young (1865-1936) : a biographical sketch", XVIII (1990), 30-39
- "Call me Charlie : Charles W. Cox, Port Arthur's populist politician", XIX (1991), 2-20
- "The Good doctor : the life of Thomas Stuart Traill Smellie", XX (1992), 14-29
- "Finland to Lappe, Ontario : Selma Lamppu Hynna (1905-1991)", XX (1992), 30-36

- "Oscar Styffe: conservationist and lumberman", XXI (1993), 7-18
- "Wartime in song and story : Gertrude Cornish Knight, motherhood and patriotism, 1910-1921", XXIV (1996), 12-33
- "The Reverend Gron [Morgan]: conscience of the Lakehead", XXVI (1998), 2-18
- "Joseph Placide Bertrand 1881-1964", XXVI (1998), 19-25
- "Memorial resolution M. Elizabeth Arthur 1920-1997, XXVI (1998), 77-80
- "Tulio Mior : bushworker and labour leader [interview 1988]", XXVIII (2000), 23-50
- "Contributions and personalities of the archaeologists who breached the continental boreal forest of Canada", XXV (1997), 24-44
- "Bruce Gamble : life between the pipes", XXX (2002), 47-65
- "'Pete' Musselman teacher and soldier", XXXI (2003), 21-50
- "From Thunder Bay to Vimy [memoir of soldier Merrill Chapman Robinson]; introduced by Mark Chochla", XXXI (2003), 51-67
- "Louis Lawrence Peltier (1853-1939) : railway labour leader, mayor of Fort William 1909-10", XXXII (2004), 10-30
- "Sgt. Joe Hicks' war : in April 1942, Royal Canadian Air Force No. 420 squadron makes a fateful raid on Rostock, Germany," XXXV (2007), 3-19
- "A Summer on the Boats," XXXVII (2009), 60-64
- "Burt Brown : 100 Years of Living," XXXVII (2009), 77
- "Mary J.L. Black : portrait of a pioneer librarian," XXXVIII (2010), 48-50

Business, economy and industry

see also Forest industries

- "A study of 19th century bookkeeping methods based on an examination of the Thomas Marks collection of business records", I (1973), 8-12
- "Oliver Daunais--the Silver King", II (1974), 12-21
- "Grain elevator maps of Thunder Bay", VI (1978), 8-15
- "W. J. Copp, Son & Co. Fort William's premier manufacturing company, VIII (1980), 8-11
- "One of our aircraft - a Fort William Hurricane", X (1982), 1-3
- "Silver mining in the Thunder Bay District 1865-1885", XIII (1985), 28-45
- "The Thunder Bay Chamber of Commerce : a source analysis", XIII (1985), 51-58
- "Picture essay : Launching minesweepers at Can Car, 1918", XVI (1988), 32-40
- "A most promising mining country : Northwestern Ontario 1845 to 1900", XIX (1991), 35-50
- "Evidence on Lakehead economic activity from the Fort William building permit registers 1907-1969", XX (1992), 37-49
- "Beyond rail and road: the Red Lake-Pickle Lake Gold Fields, 1925-1954", XXI (1993), 19-34
- "Can-Car : the aviation years [photo-essay], XXII (1994), 59-68
- "Trying times : hydro-electric power at the Lakehead during the Depression", XXII (1994), 40-58
- "The evolution of milk transportation in the Thunder Bay area 1890s to 1990s : photo-essay", XXVII (1999), 40-47

Cartography

- "Travelers and historical cartography of the "Back Road" connecting Rainy Lake and Lake of the Woods : pre-1734 to present," XXXVIII (2010), 20-35

Church history and religion

- "The establishment of Roman Catholic separate schools in Port Arthur in the 1880's", III (1975), 9-15
- "The life and work of Father Richard Baxter, missionary", XI (1983), 49-52
- "The founding of the Sailors' Institute in Thunder Bay", XIV (1986), 23-26
- "C.J. Machin, British Israelism and Imperial Federation : 'a lowly colonial clergyman in a purely missionary diocese'", XV (1987), 14-22
- "Sabbatarians and Sunday street cars", XVII (1989), 25-36
- "Holy corner : the role of religion in Ignace", XXV (1997), 2-17
- "The Reverend Gron [Morgan]: conscience of the Lakehead", XXVI (1998), 2-18
- "The work of the International Committee for the Study of the Lake Superior Jesuit Diaries and Mission papers", XXVII (1999), 33-39

Crime

- "Dimensions of crime at the Lakehead 1873-1903", X (1982), 28-35
- "The trial of Oliver Prevost", XII (1984), 19-30
- "Oral witness versus documentary evidence : the case of Rosvall and Voutilainen", XXIX (2001), 3-34
- "Prohibition at the Lakehead 1916 to 1927 : the rise and fall of the Ontario Temperance Act", XXXVI (2008), 68-88

Disasters

- "The sinking of the French minesweepers Inkerman and Cerisoles in 1918", I (1973), 1-4
- "Shipwrecks on Lake Superior's North Shore since 1816", III (1975), 22-26
- "The Great fire of 1870", XII (1984), 8-18
- "The wreck of the 1615 [Paquette dam 1908]", XXVII (1999), 2-16
- "S.S. Dunelm & Port Arthur : first rescue by 'wireless' [1910]," XXXVIII (2010), 51-58

Education

- "The establishment of Roman Catholic separate schools in Port Arthur in the 1880's", III (1975), 9-15
- "Observations on secondary education in Fort William and Port Arthur 1919-1932", VIII (1980), 12-18
- "Teaching on the School Car", XV (1987), 23-34
- "A preaching of universal discontent : beyond the 'three Rs' in the Port Arthur High School debate, 1894", XVII (1989), 3-17
- "Vocational education at the Lakehead", XVIII (1990), 59-72
- "This 'Magnificent Pile': architectural embellishments of older school buildings in Thunder Bay", XXI (1993), 35-60
- "'Pete' Musselman teacher and soldier", XXXI (2003), 21-50

Environment (Climate, Weather)

- "The William Wilson diaries 1895-1927: the influence of climate on his daily activities", XV (1987), 40-50
- "Thunder Bay's weather and climate : past, present and future", XXIII (1995), 40-55

- "The Fort William ice jam and Port Arthur ice shove", XXXVI (2008), 18-23 (reprint from 1908)
- "Throwing good money after bad: the 1936 burning of Northern Ontario," XXXVI (2008), 89-100

Ethnic groups

- "The Sons of Freedom parade [Doukhobors]", I (1973), 31-32
- "Community in the making : a case study of a benevolent society in Fort William's Little Italy", VI (1978), 16-27
- "The early years of the R. F. Welch Company Limited of Thunder Bay 1895-1918" [Italians], X (1982), 36-46
- "Finland to Lappe, Ontario : Selma Lamppu Hynna (1905-1991)", XX (1992), 30-36
- "Swedes at the Lakehead 1900-1930", XX (1992), 50-62
- "Fort William's enemy alien 'problem' during the First World War", XXII (1994), 3-22
- "Homesteading at Pass Lake [Danes]: a memoir by Karl (Charles) Hansen; introduced and edited by Beth Boegh", XXX (2002), 3-38
- "The Fort William Coal Docks: Image of an Ethnic Enclave," XXXVII (2009), 27-44
- "Pragmatism and prejudice : the wartime transfer of Japanese Canadians to Northern Ontario 1942," XXXVIII (2010), 2-19
- "Cornerstone of community : the Finnish Labour Temple and Finnish archival collections at Lakehead University," XXXVIII (2010), 36-47

Forest industries

- "The summer of '16" [logging at North Lake], I (1973), 18-19, 20
- "Lumbering in the Pigeon River watershed", IV (1976), 3-9
- "Oscar Styffe: conservationist and lumberman", XXI (1993), 7-18
- "Bunkhouses, hauling roads and Finnish beer : the logging camps of Oscar Styffe Limited", XXIII (1995), 2-23
- "Nothing but a cash deal' : Crown timber corruption in Northern Ontario 1923-1930", XXVIII (2000), 3-22
- "Tulio Mior : bushworker and labour leader [interview 1988]", XXVIII (2000), 23-50
- "Oral witness versus documentary evidence : the case of Rosvall and Voutilainen", XXIX (2001), 3-34.
- "Throwing good money after bad : the 1936 burning of Northern Ontario," XXXVI (2008), 89-100

Fur trade

- "Competitive fur trade tactics: Pointe de Meuron 1817-1821", I (1973), 33-40
- "The organization of the transfer of furs at Fort William : a study in historical geography", II (1974), 29-36
- "Underwater search for lost fur trade goods in Northern Ontario", III (1975), 27-34
- "Angélique and her children [Angélique and Roderick McKenzie]", VI (1978), 30-40
- "Old Fort William's fiddler Joe Harrison and his ancestral links with the Fort William of 1816", VII (1979), 1-5
- "The impact of weather and climate on the fur trade in the Canadian North-West", VIII (1980), 32-42
- "Lac la Pluie bill of lading 1806-1809", IX (1981), 7-13
- "The de Larondes of Lake Nipigon", IX (1981), 31-48

- "Feeding the fur traders", XXIII (1995), 24-39
- "Selections from HBC post journals of Fort William in the 1820s and 1830s", XXV (1997), 45-63
- "Stone construction at old Fort William", XXVII (1999), 17-32
- "Imagining Fort William : romanticism, tourism and the old fort, 1821 to 1971", XVIII (1990), 2-19
- "Fur trade rivalry on the Rainy River 1793-1797", XXVIII (2000), 51-71

Health and hospitals

- "The founding of St. Joseph's Hospital", II (1974), 4-11
- "The Good doctor : the life of Thomas Stuart Traill Smellie", XX (1992), 14-29
- "A hundred years of health care : McKellar General Hospital : photo-essay", XXVIII (2000), 72-82
- "One step forward, one step back : building a psychiatric hospital at the Lakehead", XXXIII (2005), 65-83
- "Port Arthur Isolation Hospital", XXXIV (2006), 65-69
- "A Warning to Other Towns : the 1906 Fort William Typhoid Epidemic," XXXVII (2009), 3-26
- Care of the Sick (as written in the year 1908), XXXVII (2009), 65-69

Labour and labour unions

- "Labour in Fort William and Port Arthur 1903-1913", I (1973), 23-30
- "Frederick Urry, architect : the wage-earner's advocate", XIV (1986), 8-22
- "The 1909 freight handlers' strike: Col. Sam Steele searches strikers for guns", XVII (1989), 18-24
- "Harry Bryan - a man of fanatical conviction", XVII (1989), 37-43
- "Tulio Mior : bushworker and labour leader [interview 1988]", XXVIII (2000), 23-50
- "Oral witness versus documentary evidence : the case of Rosvall and Voutilainen", XXIX (2001), 3-34
- "Louis Lawrence Peltier (1853-1939): railway labour leader, mayor of Fort William 1909-10", XXXII (2004), 10-30
- "Winnipeg Telegram newspaper reports on Fort William freight handlers' strike August 1909", XXXII (2004), 31-54
- "'Pressure needed': politics and work in a United Auto Workers local, Canadian Car and Foundry Ltd, Fort William, Ontario, 1952-1962", XXXII (2004), 56-71

Military and War

- "Picture essay : Launching minesweepers at Can Car, 1918", XVI (1988), 32-40
- "Aid to the civil power : the 96th Lake Superior Regiment 1909 and 1912", XIX (1991), 51-64
- "World War II German POW's in Northwestern Ontario", XX (1992), 2-13
- "Torpedoed at sea : aboard the S.S. Athenia, 1939", XXI (1993), 2-6
- "Fort William's enemy alien 'problem' during the First World War", XXII (1994), 3-22
- "Representations of women and wartime work in the Canadian Car and Foundry Company newspaper The Aircrafter", XXV (1997), 64-77
- "From Thunder Bay to Vimy [memoir of soldier Merrill Chapman Robinson]; introduced by Mark Chochla", XXXI (2003), 51-67

- "The City of Port Arthur's 'Book of Remembrance' : a record of residents who served in the First and Second World Wars", XXXII (2004), 2-9
- "Of practically no use to anyone : situating a rifle range on the Fort William Indian Reserve 1905-1914, XXXIV (2006), 3-28
- "Sgt. Joe Hicks' war : in April 1942, Royal Canadian Air Force No. 420 squadron makes a fateful raid on Rostock, Germany," XXXV (2007), 3-19
- "Interment Camp R at Red Rock : wartime meeting place for international VIPs, 1940-1941," XXXV (2007), 20-49
- "Prima in Lacubus : Over a Century of Naval Activity at the Lakehead," XXXVII (2009), 46-59
- "Pragmatism and prejudice : the wartime transfer of Japanese Canadians to Northern Ontario 1942," XXXVIII (2010), 2-19

Native peoples

- "Indian participation in the industrial economy on the North Shore of Lake Superior, 1869-1940", XV (1987), 3-13
- "Responding to white encroachment : the Robinson-Superior Ojibwa and the capitalist labor economy 1880-1914", XXII (1994), 23-39
- "Of practically no use to anyone : situating a rifle range on the Fort William Indian Reserve 1905-1914, XXXIV (2006), 3-28

Places - Ignace

- "Creation of a division point: Ignace 1883-1887", VII (1979), 12-16
- "Holy corner : the role of religion in Ignace", XXV (1997), 2-17
- "Travelers and historical cartography of the "Back Road" connecting Rainy Lake and Lake of the Woods : pre-1734 to present," XXXVIII (2010), 20-35

Places - Fort William

- "The Fort William water supply 1905-9", II (1974), 1-3
- "The establishment of Fort William municipal airport 1928-1939: an attempt at municipal cooperation", IV (1976), 24-35
- "W. J. Copp, Son & Co. Fort William's premier manufacturing company, VIII (1980), 8-11
- "The Loch Lomond tunnel and the letters edged in black", X (1982), 4-15
- "Picture essay : Fort William 1890-1935: street scenes and store fronts", XI (1983), 33-40
- "Playing the party game : R.J. Manion and the 1935 election in Fort William", XVI (1988), 3-15
- "How the Fort William Town Plot became Westfort", XVI (1988), 29-31
- "Fort William's enemy alien 'problem' during the First World War", XXII (1994), 3-22
- "Evidence on Lakehead economic activity from the Fort William building permit registers 1907-1969", XX (1992), 37-49
- "Images of 1908", XXVI (1998), 64-72
- "A hundred years of health care : McKellar General Hospital : photo-essay", XXVIII (2000), 72-82
- "Downtown revitalization and Victoriaville Centre", XXIX (2001), 35-54
- "In public's demand : entertainment in Fort William's first town hall 1892-1903", XXXI (2003), 3-20

- "Louis Lawrence Peltier (1853-1939) : railway labour leader, mayor of Fort William 1909-10", XXXII (2004), 10-30
- "Winnipeg Telegram newspaper reports on Fort William freight handlers' strike August 1909", XXXII (2004), 31-54
- "'Pressure needed' : politics and work in a United Auto Workers local, Canadian Car and Foundry Ltd, Fort William, Ontario, 1952-1962", XXXII (2004), 56-71
- "Of practically no use to anyone : situating a rifle range on the Fort William Indian Reserve 1905-1914, XXXIV (2006), 3-28
- "A Warning to Other Towns : the 1906 Fort William Typhoid Epidemic," XXXVII (2009), 3-26
- "The Fort William Coal Docks : Image of an Ethnic Enclave," XXXVII (2009), 27-44

Places - Hymers

- "Hymers - the first sixty years", III (1975), 19-21

Places - Lappe, Gorham Township

- "Finland to Lappe, Ontario : Selma Lamppu Hynna (1905-1991)", XX (1992), 30-36

Places - Longlac, Jellicoe

- "Some memories of the Thunder Bay gold rush of '34" [Jellicoe, Longlac], VIII (1980), 22-31

Places - Nipigon and Cameron Falls

- "A bride goes to Cameron Falls", III (1975), 1-8
- "Angélique and her children [Angélique and Roderick McKenzie]", VI (1978), 30-40
- "The de Larondes of Lake Nipigon", IX (1981), 31-48

Places - O'Connor Township

- "The Garbutt letters [O'Connor Township]", IV (1976), 12-23

Places - Pass Lake

- "Homesteading at Pass Lake : a memoir by Karl (Charles) Hansen; introduced and edited by Beth Boegh", XXX (2002), 3-38

Places - Port Arthur

- "The founding of St. Joseph's Hospital", II (1974), 4-11
- "The Wilson letters [Port Arthur 1889-93]", II (1974), 22-28
- "The establishment of Roman Catholic separate schools in Port Arthur in the 1880's", III (1975), 9-15
- "Port Arthur 1884 : extracts from J. Ewing Ritchie, To Canada with emigrants", V (1977), 12-17
- "Port Arthur's Waverley Park: an attempt at city beautification", V (1977), 24-31

- "The Woodside generator Port Arthur's first electric light system", VII (1979), 6-10
- "Panoramic map of Port Arthur 1885", VII (1979), 17-20
- "Falling into line : how Prince Arthur's Landing became Port Arthur", XIII (1985), 8-19
- "The founding of the Sailors' Institute in Thunder Bay", XIV (1986), 23-26
- "Call me Charlie : Charles W. Cox, Port Arthur's populist politician", XIX (1991), 2-20
- "The City of Port Arthur's 'Book of Remembrance' : a record of residents who served in the First and Second World Wars", XXXII (2004), 2-9
- "J.J. Carrick's Brent Park subdivision, Port Arthur, Ontario, 1906-1950 : the consequences of uncontrolled real estate development", XXXIV (2006), 29-50
- "In the shadow of a city : a history of the Current River neighbourhood", XXXIV (2006), 51-69
- "Port Arthur Isolation Hospital", XXXIV (2006), 65-69
- "Theatre and music on Ontario's frontier 1876-1907 : town hall entertainment in Victorian Thunder Bay", XXXVI (2008), 24-52 (focuses on the Port Arthur Town Hall)
- "Backward glance [Port Arthur Publicity & Tourist Pagoda 1909]", XXXVII (2009), 80

Places - Rainy River District

- "Lac la Pluie bill of lading 1806-1809", IX (1981), 7-13
- "Fur trade rivalry on the Rainy River 1793-1797", XXVIII (2000), 51-71

Places - Red Lake

- "Beyond rail and road: the Red Lake-Pickle Lake Gold Fields, 1925-1954", XXI (1993), 19-34

Places - Red Rock

- "Interment Camp R at Red Rock : wartime meeting place for international VIPs, 1940-1941," XXXV (2007), 20-49

Places - York Factory

- "Reminiscences of York Factory [Adelaide Alston Taylor]", IX (1981), 1-6

Politics and government

- "The establishment of Fort William municipal airport 1928-1939: an attempt at municipal cooperation", IV (1976), 24-35
- "Incidents in the life of James Conmee 1848-1913", XI (1983), 53-61
- "Playing the party game : R.J. Manion and the 1935 election in Fort William", XVI (1988), 3-15
- "Call me Charlie : Charles W. Cox, Port Arthur's populist politician", XIX (1991), 2-20
- "Municipal political culture and conflict of interest at the Lakehead 1969-1972", XXVI (1998), 26-45

Postal history

- "The winter mail trail to Pigeon River", I (1973), 13-17

Prohibition and Temperance

- "Prohibition at the Lakehead 1916 to 1927 : the rise and fall of the Ontario Temperance Act", XXXVI (2008), 68-88

Railways

- "Creation of a division point: Ignace 1883-1887", VII (1979), 12-16
- "The early years of the R. F. Welch Company Limited of Thunder Bay 1895-1918", X (1982), 36-46
- "Thunder Bay, once a city of train stations", XXVI (1998), 46-63
- "Along the CPR line : Schreiber to Fort William [photo-essay]". XXXIII (2005), 3-16

Shipping and marine

- "The sinking of the French minesweepers Inkerman and Cerisoles in 1918", I (1973), 1-4
- "Shipwrecks on Lake Superior's North Shore since 1816", III (1975), 22-26
- "Thunder Bay harbour 1913 and 1936 : portraits in maps", V (1977), 18-22
- "The Cambria - a story of great expectations", IX (1981), 14-16
- "The development of the harbours of Port Arthur and Fort William", XI (1983), 42-48
- "The founding of the Sailors' Institute in Thunder Bay", XIV (1986), 23-26
- "The development of Paterson Steamships' first generation fleet, 1915-1940", XIV (1986), 38-45
- "The Paterson fleet : a photo essay", XIV (1986), 46-54
- "Picture essay : Launching minesweepers at Can Car, 1918", XVI (1988), 32-40
- "The burning of the Noronic", XVIII (1990), 20-29
- "The Point Porphyry light, Lake Superior : the Andrew Dick diary and reminiscences of Bob McKay from a century of lighthouse keeping; introduced and edited by Beth Boegh", XXIII (2005), 17-41
- "Ships of the Great Lakes [six photographs]", XXXIV (2006), 70-73
- "A Summer on the Boats [memoir of the Noronic summer 1948]," XXXVII (2009), 60-64
- "S.S. Dunelm & Port Arthur : first rescue by 'wireless' [1910]," XXXVIII (2010), 51-58

Sport

- "The Northwestern Ontario Sports Hall of Fame", VIII (1980), 1-2
- "Aspects of early sport in Thunder Bay", VIII (1980), 2-7
- "Bruce Gamble : life between the pipes", XXX (2002), 47-65
- "Battles on the Bay: wrestling in Fort William and Port Arthur before the Great Depression", XXXV (2007), 50-66

Thunder Bay Historical Society

- "The Thunder Bay Historical Society 1908-1972", VI (1978), 1-7
- "The Rocky road home : a hundred years in the life of the Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society," XXXVI (2008), 3-17
- 'Rededicating the Hudson's Bay memorial tablet : commemorating the past and preserving the future,' XXXVI (2008), 101-103

Thunder Bay Historical Museum:

Articles featuring artifacts or documents held in the collection

Artifacts

- "The Woodside generator Port Arthur's first electric light system", VII (1979), 6-10
- "Panoramic map of Port Arthur 1885", VII (1979), 17-20
- "W. J. Copp, Son & Co. Fort William's premier manufacturing company", VIII (1980), 8-11
- "The Cambria - a story of great expectations", IX (1981), 14-16
- "A. L. Russell and the Port Arthur Rifle Association", X (1982), 23-27
- "Trousseau treasures of 1872: museum notes", XII (1984), 38-47
- "James Murphy 1863-1928 [silver tea service]", XV (1987), 35-39

Documents

- "A study of 19th century bookkeeping methods based on an examination of the Thomas Marks collection of business records", I (1973), 8-12
- "The Fort William water supply 1905-9", II (1974), 1-3
- "The Wilson letters [Port Arthur 1889-93]", II (1974), 22-28
- "The Garbutt letters [O'Connor Township]", IV (1976), 12-23
- "Lac la Pluie bill of lading 1806-1809", IX (1981), 7-13
- "The Loch Lomond tunnel and the letters edged in black", X (1982), 4-15
- "The Thunder Bay Chamber of Commerce : a source analysis", XIII (1985), 51-58
- "The Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society's Archives", XIV (1986), 27-31
- "The museum and education", XIV (1986), 32-37
- "The William Wilson diaries 1895-1927 : the influence of climate on his daily activities", XV (1987), 40-50
- "Athabasca Journal and English River Inquirer [written 1845], XVI (1988), 41-54
- "Thunder Bay's suffragists : the Anne J. Barrie papers", XIX (1991), 21-34
- "Selections from HBC post journals of Fort William in the 1820s and 1830s", XXV (1997), 45-63
- "From Thunder Bay to Vimy [memoir of Merrill Chapman Robinson]; introduced by Mark Chochla", XXXI (2003), 51-67
- "The Point Porphyry light, Lake Superior : the Andrew Dick diary and reminiscences of Bob McKay from a century of lighthouse keeping; introduced and edited by Beth Boegh", 17-41

Photographs

- "Picture essay: Fort William 1890-1935: street scenes and store fronts", XI (1983), 33-40
- "Picture essay: the Frederick G. Lovelady collection", XII (1984), 31-37
- "Picture essay : Launching minesweepers at Can Car, 1918", XVI (1988), 32-40
- "Can-Car : the aviation years [photo-essay], XXII (1994), 59-68
- "Images of 1908", XXVI (1998), 64-72
- "Ships of the Great Lakes [six photographs]", XXXIV (2006), 70-73
- "Backward glance [Charlie Cox, C.D. Howe and Mackenzie King greet King George VI & Queen Elizabeth 23 May 1939 at Port Arthur]," XXXVIII (2010), 72

Urban history and city planning

- "The Fort William water supply 1905-9", II (1974), 1-3

- "The establishment of Fort William municipal airport 1928-1939: an attempt at municipal cooperation", IV (1976), 24-35
- "Port Arthur 1884 : extracts from J. Ewing Ritchie, To Canada with emigrants", V (1977), 12-17
- "Port Arthur's Waverley Park: an attempt at city beautification", V (1977), 24-31
- "The population of Thunder Bay 1884-1901", VII (1979), 21-29
- "The Intercity Development Association and the making of the City of Thunder Bay", IX (1981), 22-30
- "Picture essay: Fort William 1890-1935: street scenes and store fronts", XI (1983), 33-40
- "Falling into line : how Prince Arthur's Landing became Port Arthur", XIII (1985), 8-19
- "William C. Van Horne, the CPR and the Kaministiquia property : a selection of letters", XIII (1985), 20-27
- "How the Fort William Town Plot became Westfort", XVI (1988), 29-31
- "The creation of the Port Arthur Street Railway 1890-95 : Canada's first municipally-owned street railway", XVIII (1990), 40-58
- "Downtown revitalization and Victoriaville Centre", XXIX (2001), 35-54
- "J.J. Carrick's Brent Park subdivision, Port Arthur, Ontario, 1906-1950 : the consequences of uncontrolled real estate development", XXXIV (2006), 29-50
- "In the shadow of a city : a history of the Current River neighbourhood", XXXIV (2006), 51-69

Photocopies of articles may be purchased from the Thunder Bay Museum at a cost of 25 cents per page, or you can purchase an entire volume for $10.

Annual subscription: $10.00

Books may be ordered:

By mail: from the Thunder Bay Museum
425 Donald Street East
Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7E 5V1, Canada

By fax: (807) 622-6880 or By phone: (807) 623-0801

Visa and MasterCard accepted.

Please indicate card number and expiry date when paying by charge card and provide your name and full mailing address for all orders.

Shipping and handling includes cost of standard postage.

All prices are in Canadian dollars.

For more information e-mail the Thunder Bay Museum