

A 86

Lake Superior Takes Grampa Woo fonds

Original, 30 minutes of video tape, 1998

Scope and Content:

Series A 86/1/1 - video tape

One half-inch video tape of the story of the wreck of the 30-foot ship the Grampa Woo off Isle Royale in 1996 and its subsequent salvage in 1998. Shows footage of the actual sinking, underwater views of the vessel and the raising of its parts.

Biographical Sketch:

John Doughty is a diver and amateur filmmaker from Thunder Bay.

Additional Information

Custodial History - Donated directly to museum in 1999 by John Doughty, 2204 Broadway Ave., R.R. #6, Thunder Bay 939-1292.