

A 95

Ken Morrison fonds

Original, 82 cm and 21 p of textual records, c. 1972-2003, 2008-2009

Scope and content: The Ken Morrison fonds consists of two series ranging from correspondence to a manuscript, all of which are written by Ken Morrison himself.

Series A 95/1/1-15: Correspondence - 82 cm - 1980-2003, 2008-2009 (originals).

Seventeen binders of the correspondence of Ken Morrison of Thunder Bay, Ontario. Includes letters to his family relating news of current family matters, and correspondence about Unitarianism, politics (particularly NDP politics), world affairs, social community, business issues, local news and other issues. Arranged chronologically.

- 1) 1980-1984.
- 2) 1982 (Best of Britain).
- 3) 1985-1986.
- 4) 1987.
- 5) 1988.
- 6) 1989.
- 7) 1990.
- 8) 1991.
- 9) 1992.
- 10) 1993.
- 11) 1994.
- 12) 1995.
- 13) 1996-1997.
- 14) 1998-1999.
- 15) 2000.
- 16) 2001-2003
- 17) 2008-2009

Series A 95/2/1: Manuscript - 21 p - c. 1972 (original).

One unpublished manuscript entitled "The Businessman Voter: The Catalyst to the Federal-Provincial Voting Split?" by Ken Morrison, c. 1972.

Biographical Sketch: Ken Morrison was a writer, historian, and commentator on a variety of issues. He worked in real estate in Thunder Bay, Ontario, from the 1970s to his retirement in 1994. Ken was involved with a number of organizations including the Lakehead Unitarian Fellowship, Meals on Wheels, the Thunder Bay Museum, the Real Estate Board and Lakehead University.

Additional Information: None