Biographical sketch:

The Algoma Lodge # 267 is a division of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. As such, the lodge operated under a set of uniform and formal procedures that are used by all IOOF lodges. Throughout its existence the lodge has been very active in fundraising and was a regular contributor to various charities. These activities were carried out as an extension of the IOOF mission to promote fraternity amongst its members. The Algoma Lodge still operates within Thunder Bay today (2006).
