Newsletters from the NACC

E 98/1-: Newsletters, 1971-1986, 6 cm

Newsletters covering the period between 1971 and 1986. Some editions may be missing. Winter, spring, and autumn of 1978 are missing but other gaps line up with changing formats.

Organisational Sketch:

The NACC was formed in 1969 after three years of planning amongst craftspeople and artists in Northwestern Ontario. With funding from the Northern Ontario Development Corporation the NACC worked to improve coordination and communications amongst artists, as well as to provide a platform for promotion. The group also held an annual spring conference of artists to plan for the year ahead.
