

D.B. McKillop fonds (Canadian National Railway)

1944-1945, 1958-1960

2 cm of textual records

Biographical Sketch

D.B. McKillop was the assistant engineer in charge of the construction of the C.N.R. ore dock at Port Arthur in 1944-1945. He worked out of the C.N.R.'s office of bridge engineering in Winnipeg.

Scope and Content

Series A 53/1/1 - Specifications

Final summaries of the construction details of the Canadian National Railway's ore dock-viaduct and trestle approach, 1944-1945 and 1958-1960. Includes a weekly progress chart of trestle erected from Oct. 1944 to June 1945. Includes three items: Timber and pilings (1944-1945), 65 fol.; progress chart (1944-1945) (1 fol.); quantities for substructure (1950-1960), 45 fol.

Additional Information

Custodial History - Formerly catalogued into museum collection under number 973.46.28-30

Associated Material - See also 973.46.1+