

Daily Times-Journal fonds

1965-1970

2 cm of textual records

Administrative history

The Daily Times-Journal began in 1899 and ran until it amalgamated with the News Chronicle in 1972. At the time these records were produced George B. Macgillivray who was president and publisher of the paper and Tom Roberts the Classified Advertising Manager. These records were from the files of Tom Roberts.

Scope and Content

Series B 26/1/1. - Memoranda and letters

Memoranda and letters relating to the advertising policies and procedures of the Daily Times-Journal newspaper. Written mostly by G.B. Macgillivray and Tom Roberts. Concerns internal matters for the most part, particularly the classified advertising department. It is arranged chronologically and typed.