

Diary/Lake Superior Voyage

1867

26 fol. of photocopies

Biographical Sketch

Writer of the diary is unknown. He is probably a young man from Toronto on an excursion with a friend named Holford who appears to have been a medical doctor.

Scope and Content

Series A 3/1/1: Diary, 26 fol.

Diary entitled "Trip to Fort William on Lake Superior, Aug. 1, 1867". Anonymous handwritten entries commence 1 Aug. and run to 5 Sept. 1867 and describe a trip from Collingwood across the north shore of Lake Superior to Fort William including stops along the way and life aboard the steamer Algoma. Fellow passengers and life and people at Fort William are also described.

Additional Information

Copy/Repository - Originals are in Archives of Ontario MU 848 Diaries II -3- Aug. 1867.