

Diocese of Keewatin Anglican Mission fonds

1846-1956

2 reels, microfilm

Administrative history

The various missionaries of the Anglican Dioceses of Keewatin in the region of Northern Ontario and Manitoba included Churchill, Fort Alexander, Fort Severn, Islington, Lac Seul, Osnaburgh, and York Factory.

Scope and Content

Series E 34/1/1-2 - Vital statistics and parish books

1) Reel 1: a Cree grammar; Churchill, baptisms, confirmations, marriages and death records, 1860-1934; Fort Alexander, baptisms, 1864-1893; Islington, baptisms 1871-1943, and marriages, 1872-1942; Lac Seul, baptisms, marriages and deaths, 1881-1896.

2) Reel 2: Lac Seul, baptisms, marriages and death (continued), 1896-1902; Osnaburgh, burials, 1880-1951, and marriages, 1883-1956; York Factory, parish book discussing everyday activities such as weather, church activities, packets arriving, hunting, sermons preached, 1879-92, church accounts, etc.; York Factory baptisms, marriages and deaths, 1846-58, including Fort Churchill; York Factory baptisms and marriages, 1858-64; York Factory baptisms and marriages, 1858-64; York Factory baptisms, 1864-78; York Factory baptisms, 1864-1903; York Factory births 1864-1924; York Factory deaths, 1864-1929; York Factory marriages 1864-52.

Additional Information

Copy/Repository - Originals are kept by the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese of Keewatin, Kenora.