Administrative history

Great Lakes Lumber and Shipping Limited of Fort William started originally as timber contractors, formed out of the Great Lakes Lumber Company in 1943-44 with E.E. Johnson (formerly of Pigeon River Timber Company), as president. Later Don C. Clark was president until the company folded in ca.1980. In 1948-1950 the company was heavily involved in a dispute with the paper companies and the Ontario government over the apportioning of cutting rights between the pulp and paper companies and the sawmills.

Scope and Content

Series B 24/1/1. - transcripts

Transcripts of four newspapers and magazine articles and one paper entitled "Questions on Pulp-Sawlog Supply Problem". There were four prepared issues by the company probably in its effort to change the Ontario government's policy on timberland concessions. It also contains a statement made by Port Arthur Alderman E. Wishart to Premier Leslie Frost (1949).
