

Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association fonds

1943, 1971-1979

6 cm of textual records

Administrative history

The Ladies Orange Benevolent Association (Port Arthur Lodge), is for Protestant women unified to preserve and develop Protestantism, the laws and constitution of the Country, the exercise of benevolence and charity, and to minister to the needs of the sick. It exists as an auxiliary of the Loyal Orange Association. Its slogan is "One School, One Flag, and One Language". It strives to uphold the public school system and, according to its constitution, is an anti-Catholic organization.

Scope and Content

Series E 15/1/1. - Records

One envelope containing copies of the Association's Constitution and by-laws, hymn book, dues book, financial accounts, rental book for meeting hall, passwords, and Ritual book of the Loyal True Blue Association.

Notes

Formerly catalogued into the museum collection, 982.86.9.