

Coalition for Language Tolerance Fonds

Originals, 2cm, 1990-1994

Scope and Content:

A collection of documents covering the Coalition for Language Tolerance's efforts to overturn English-Only legislation in the city of Thunder Bay in the early 1990s.

E 88/1/1: Administrative documents, <1cm, 1990-1991

Various administrative papers, includes contact information, mission statements, and minutes from meetings amongst other documents.

E 88/2/1: Election Flyers, <1cm, 1991

A range of municipal election flyers for the 1991 election.

E 88/3/1: Survey, <1cm, 1991

Surveys returned and the results from an effort to determine the levels of public support for and against the municipal English Only legislation.

E88/4/1: Assorted, <1cm, 1991-1994

A few assorted documents including information on the 1994 court ruling overturning Sault-Ste. Marie's English only laws.

Organisational Sketch:

The Coalition of Language Tolerance was in response to an English-only services resolution by the municipal government. The coalition's goal was national unity and multiculturalism.