

Reverend S.C. Murray fonds

1893-1911

25 fol. photocopy

Biographical Sketch

Rev. S.C. Murray (1857-1945) was minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian church in Port Arthur from 1893 to 1911. He was a Christian Socialist actively involved in the local labour movement. He was also convener of the Home Mission Committee of the Presbyterian Church of Canada and chairman of the Educational Committee of the Port Arthur Board of Education.

Scope and Content

Series A 6/1/1 - Memoirs - 25 fol.

Chapter from the memoirs of S.C. Murray, written in 1940 but concerning the period 1893-1911. Concerns life in Port Arthur in the 1890s as well as church affairs. Also deals with the formation of the Labour Brotherhood and outlines the labour problems of organizations such as the electrical unions.

Additional Material

Copy/Repository - Original manuscript is in possession of Mrs. M.W. Malyon of Calgary.