

E75

Thunder Bay Scottish Club Fonds

Minute books, receipt and correspondence

Scope and content: The Thunder Bay Scottish Club fonds are composed of two minute books that document the activities and finances of the Thunder Bay Scottish Club. This collection is arranged chronologically.

Series E 75/1/1-2: Two minute books, 4cm, 1950-1981 (original)

- 1) 1950-1966, Minute book; One minute book documenting the activities, finances and membership of the Scottish Benevolence Club/Thunder Bay Scottish Club. Included within the minute book are a receipt, two correspondence and a clander, 2cm (original)
- 2) 1967-1981, Minute book; One minute book documenting the activities, finances and membership of the Thunder Bay Scottish Club. Included within the minute book is a single correspondence regarding finances, 2cm (original)

Biographical Sketch: The Scottish Benevolence Club changed its name to the Thunder Bay Scottish Club on January 10, 1958. Its main function was to provide a social setting for local people of Scottish decent and to promote benevolence through charity. The Thunder Bay Scottish Club had a membership of approximately fifteen people throughout its thirty-one year history.

Additional information:

None