

Westfort Community Centre, Teen Town fonds

1944-1947

2 cm of textual records

Administrative history

Teen Town was a club for teenagers up to the age of 18, and was a part of the Westfort Community Centre. Its aim was to provide sports and cultural recreation activities (games, dances) for young people, both male and female, in the Westfort area. The club was very popular in the period just after the Second World War.

Scope and Content

Series E 32/1/1 - Minutes

Minutes of the Teen Town Club contained in one volume of 135 pages. The first 38 pages are missing, 7 July 1944 to 2 Dec. 1947. Also contains two membership lists, one dated 1946-1947.