Duration: 8 weeks, 35 hours per week

Rate of Pay: $17.60/hour

Tentative Start Date: 2 July 2026

JOB DESCRIPTION: The assistant aids the Museum's Education and Outreach Coordinator in developing and delivering the Museum's Summer Theme Camp programs. Spanning 8 weeks, with three days of training and preparation before they begin and 2 days of wrap up at the end. Providing daily leadership and supervision of activities for children ages 6-12 attending the theme camps. Preparing daily program plans with activities and preparing all materials necessary for them. Ensuring the environment where the theme camps occur is thoroughly cleaned and free of hazards—interacting with parents to ensure the success of their child's involvement. This role is critical for the Museum to connect with young people and helps instill a pride of place in Thunder Bay for future generations.

PRIMARY QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated organizational skills, good oral and written communication skills, experience with computers, keyboarding ability, and an interest in history and programming. Experience working with children is an asset. Post-secondary education preferred.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:

1. Must sign a confidentiality agreement;
2. be between 15 and 30 years of age at the beginning of the employment period;
3. be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act for the duration of the employment*; and,
4. have a valid Social Insurance Number at the start of employment and be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations

*International students are not eligible participants. As the objective of the CSJ program is to support youth entering the Canadian labour market, the temporary nature of an international student's time in Canada does not allow for a long-term connection to the labour market. International students include anyone who is temporarily in Canada for studies and who is not a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person who has been granted refugee status in Canada. Youth awaiting a refugee status ruling, as well as those who hold a temporary visitor visa, youth visa or work visa are ineligible.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

About the Thunder Bay Museum: The Society was founded in 1908 as a historical society and a museum was added in 1942 and expanded several times since. Though much of its funding comes from the City of Thunder Bay, the Society is an independent, not-for-profit organization that now operates a museum, archives, and historical society in a designated heritage building that it has restored and retrofitted, and which is leased from the municipality. The Society has an annual operating budget of approximately $800,000 and employs eight permanent staff, multiple contract staff, and dozens of volunteers. It also has a capital budget that varies depending on its needs. Staff include an executive director, curator/archivist, chief operations officer, exhibit curator, education and outreach officer, front desk receptionist/gift shop manager, and a bookkeeper.
